Anyone who is experiencing symptoms of COVID19 within 48 hours of attending a choir rehearsal.	Immediately self-isolate.
	Obtain a PCR test from https://www.gov.uk/get-coronavirus-test to find out whether they have COVID19 or not.
	If the test is positive you are requested to inform the SPOC. However, it is now the responsibility of track and trace to inform close contacts. You may give the SPOC details to track and trace.	No action until a positive case has been confirmed by a PCR test result.	No action until one or more positive cases have been confirmed by a PCR test result.	The SPOC will inform the choir that there has been a confirmed case of COVID19 linked to a choir rehearsal. The next rehearsal will continue as planned, but members can make own decision whether they want to attend or not.	The SPOC will inform the choir that there has been more than one confirmed case of Covid19 linked to a particular choir rehearsal. The next rehearsal will be held online.
